

TRADE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT MINISTER TO VISIT
14 January 2004

Member for Flinders Liz Penfold said the Hon Rory McEwen will gain a first hand insight into the region's export potential during his visit to Port Lincoln on Monday and Tuesday next week (19 and 20 January, 2004).

Mr McEwen is Minister for Industry, Trade and Development, Local Government and Small Business.

The itinerary takes in Port Lincoln Tuna Processors and fish farming projects aimed at the export trade.

He will meet with Eyre Regional Development Board members and will tour Port Lincoln looking at the site of the proposed Marine Innovations South Australia project, the proposed Lukin development, and Lincoln Marine Science Centre, together with other sites related to issues of development and transport.

Mr McEwen will attend the Port Lincoln City Council meeting on Monday night.
